Class of 1983
Kingswood-Oxford
School

We, the Senior Class of 1983, would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Lawrence Roberts. His unique personality in and out of the classroom and his devotion to College Counselling have helped to make our Senior year unforgettable. He is our teacher, coach, and most of all our friend. Thank you.

The most incomprehensible thing about the universe is that it is all comprehensible. The fairest thing we can experience is the mysterious — Albert Einstein

Better than a hundred years of worship Better than a thousand offerings, Better than giving up a thousand worldly ways in order to win merit Better even than tending in the forest a sacred flame for a hundred years — is one moment's reverence for the man who has conquered himself —
Buddha

All our judgements are at first merely of perceptions, they hold good only for us (that is for our object), and we do not till afterwards give them a new reference (to an object) and desire that they shall always hold good for us and in the same way as everybody else, for when a judgement agrees with an object, all judgements concerning the same object must likewise agree among themselves, and thus the objectivity validity of the judgement of experience signifies nothing else than its necessary universal validity — Immanuel Kant

To every consistent recursive class k of formulae there correspond recursive class-signs t , such that neither $vGenr$ nor $Neg(vGenr)$ belongs to $Fig(k)$ (where v is the free variable of r) — Kurt Gödel

Fantasy is the normal human activity. It certainly does not destroy or even insult reason, and it does not either blunt the appetite for, nor obscure the perception of, scientific verity . . . the keener and the clearer the reason, the better fantasy it will make — J.R.R. Tolkien

Still don't know what I was waiting for and my time is running wild and in dead end streets and everytime I thought I got it made it seemed the taste was not so sweet so I turned my self to face me but I've never caught a glimpse how the others must see a faker I'm much to fast to take that test changes, turn and face the strange changes there's gonna have to be a different man time may charge me but I can't trace time David Bowie

There are places I'll remember all my life though some have changed some forever, not for better some have gone and some remain All these places had their moments with lovers and friends I still can recall some are dead and some are living in my life I've loved them all

I'm woven in a fantasy, I can't believe the things I see The path that I have chosen now has led me to a wall And with each passing day I feel a little more like something dear was lost It rises now before me, a dark and silent barrier between,
 All I am, and all that I would ever want to be It's just a travesty, towering, marking off the boundaries my spirit would erase To pass beyond is what I seek, I fear that I may be too weak And those are few who've seen it through to glimpse the other side, The promise land is waiting like a maiden that is soon to be a bride The moment is a masterpiece, the weight of indecisions in the air It's standing there, the symbol and the sum of all that's me It's just a travesty, towering, blocking out the light and blinding me I want to see Gold and diamonds cast a spell, it's not for me I know it well The treasures that I seek are waiting on the other side, There's more than I can measure in the treasures of the love that I can find And though it's always been with me, I must tear down the Wall and let it be All I am and all that I was ever meant to be in harmony Shining true and smiling back at all who wait to cross
 THERE IS NO LOSS

Between the finite limitations of the five senses
and the endless yearnings of man for the beyond the people hold the humdrum bidding of work and food while reaching out when it comes their way for lights beyond the prison of the five senses
for keepsakes lasting beyond any hunger or death
This reaching is alive
The paddlers and liars have violated and smutted it Yet this reaching is alive yet for lights and keepsakes

In the darkness with a great bundle of grief the people march In the night, and overhead a shovel of stars for keeps, the people march "Where to? what next?"

Carl Sandburg

It is time to leave

Our beginning is coming to a close

And so we look at tomorrow

But etc look at yesterday and today we arrived here alone and began our adventure Slowly carefully not sure of what was expected or sure of what we wanted

But during our time together we gave up our loneliness and insecurities. We gained new friends, confidence in ourselves and a special feeling which cannot be defined by words

We leave so much stronger for we have shared deeply I look at all of you and smile for you are my friends

Let us not waste our time in idle discourse. Let us do something, while we have the chance. It is not every day that we are needed. Others would meet the case equally well, if not better. To all mankind they were addressed those cries for help ringing in our ears. But at this place, at this moment of time, all mankind is us, whether we like it or not. Let us make the most of it, before it is too late. Let us represent worthily for once the foul brood to which a cruel fate consigned us! What do you say?

The Road Not Taken
Robert Frost

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood And looked down one as far as I could To where it bent in the undergrowth.

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear Though as for that the passing there Had worn them really about the same.

And both that morning equally lay In leaves no step had trodden black Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads onto way,
I doubted if I should ever come back

I shall be telling this with a sigh Somewhere ages and ages hence Two roads diverged in the wood, and I — I took the one less traveled by
And that has made all the difference
